Letter from the Bishop of Oahu.

Ma. Editor: In your issue of May 27th, I notice an article signed "Fair Play," in answer to Mr. R. L. Stevenson's open letter to the Rev. Dr. C. M. Hyde. My object in addressing you is not to discuss the relative merits of Mr. Stevenson's letter and "Fair Play's" reply, as every reader of both writings is able to form his own opinion of each. Neither do I care to analyze the "compliments" paid by the doctor to the memory of the late Father Damien. If "Fair Play" and others are pleased with them, it proves their taste. There is one point though in the whole controversy which I consider it my duty to take up—and that is the moral character of Father Damien, because "Fair Play" seems to suppose, as an undenied truth, the bold and odious assertion of Dr. Hyde, "that Father Damien contracted leprosy by his vices."

When Dr. Hyde's letter became known here by means of foreign papers, the Catholic Mission held its peace, awaiting the expression of public opinion. Up to that time I had never heard of any slur cast upon Father Damien's moral purity. I immediately made secret but serious confidential inquiry about the matter, and I learnt, from reliable sources, that the damaging rumors had no other foundation than a malicious interpretation of charitable acts performed by him with childlike simplicity. Public opinion does not credit those foul rumors here, though there are a few people that take stock in the scandal, for reasons best known to themselves.

In your last issue you publish an interview of Dr. Hyde with the Examiner in which the doctor sustains his original letter on Father Damien. Further, a clipping from the Liverpool Courier which I received lately, contains Dr. Hyde's letter to Mr. Bets, and in this letter the doctor again maintains his original statement and he even adds: "The Catholic Mission here makes no denial of the truthfulness of my testimony."

Now, as head of the Catholic Mission here, further silence on my part would give the color of truth to Dr. Hyde's slanderous attack on the late Father Damien, and, therefore, I beg you to publish the following declaration which I make as head of this Mission:

"I do most emphatically deny the truthfulness of Dr. Hyde's testimony against the moral purity of the late Father Damien."

Please publish the above in your next issue and oblige.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN,
Bishop of Oahu, V. Ap.

MR. EDITOR—The present anomalous condition of the Cabinet has presented a scene differing from any that has ever before occurred under this Government; and yet this situation was anticipated at the formation of the Cabinet in 1887, as among the possibilities that might happen. It has been demonstrated, however, that an obnoxious member of it may defy the efforts made by the majority of his associates to secure his withdrawal. The only alternative is for the Legislature to request his resignation in such way as it may decide, and if not complied with to take such action as shall secure his removal.

With the exception of the Attorney-General, the present Cabinet has shown its fitness for the public service, and most unquestionably satisfies the great majority of the people, both natives and foreigners. A more efficient Minister of the Interior never filled the place than Mr. Thurston, nor has any previous occupant accomplished in the way of public improvements, during three years, half what he has done. This is evident on every island of the group.

Nor has a more capable Minister than Mr. Damon ever presided over the finances of the Kingdom, nor one who has retained in a greater degree the confidence and trust of all classes, who desire his continuance in office.

There can be no doubt that the people are well satisfied with the majority of the present Cabinet, and desire their retention, provided harmony be restored by the appointment of an Attorney-General who can work with his associates. If the native section possesses a lawyer qualified to be Attorney-General, and whose appointment would be creditable to the public, by all means let him be named. But let us not cast aside men who have proven their fitness for positions for which very few are qualified.

KA LEO O KA LAHUI.

Mr. J. F. Morgan sold the residence of the late Judge Preston, corner of King and Piko streets, on Saturday week, for $15,600. The sale includes a vacant lot adjoining, of the same size as that on which the dwelling stands.
